Sailor Iron Mouse is on the move in the city. She is feeling down. Sailor Galaxia is angry with her because Sailor Iron Mouse has not brought her any Star Seeds yet. Sailor Iron Mouse knows she must find some quickly or she won't live to see another day.

Suddenly, Sailor Iron Mouse sees a group of children marveling at a window display. Curious, she goes to see what the showcase contains. Her eyes filled with stars as she saw the objects on display. All in different colors and shapes and all looking delicious.

"What is that?" She asks a boy.

"What? You don't know what sweets are?"

"Sweets?"

"Well, yeah! Candies, cakes, macaroons, chocolate... They look so good! This store just opened. If only I still had my pocket money, I could..."

Sailor Iron Mouse no longer listens to the child talk. She looks at the sweets with admiration and envy in her eyes.

"I'm decided!" She whispers. "I'm going to collect these sweets for Sailor Gal... no, for myself!"

Her mission changes completely. Sailor Iron Mouse forgets about the Star Seeds, Galaxia's threat, and walks away from the store with a wicked smile on her face. As soon as it gets dark, she's going to loot the store of its delicious merchandise. Afterwards, Sailor Iron Mouse can feast on sweets and then find another "target", another dessert store in Tokyo.
